- SHE Style:

www.diesel.com

Fall 2009 is upon us and DIESEL has a new concept...glow in the dark jeans? If SHE wants to be seen then this line is for her. It will be a great look for the nightclubs and even that late night bike ride or jog! If SHE has a tendency to wear designer jeans while always getting lost in the woods, then these will be a great option for her to get spotted quickly.

- Oh So Retro:

www.bigchillfridge.com

Add a bit of style and color to your kitchen with the retro appliances that have been featured in publications from The New York Times and This Old House to magazine's from the likes of Oprah, Martha Stewart and Rachael Ray...

- SHE Tech:

www.computer-choppers.com

Computer Choppers provides luxury customization services unmatched anywhere in the world. From plating to jewelry and casting, you will not find another service quite like this. Custom plated and anodized laptops are exclusive to Computer Choppers, no other company in the world offers a similar service.
